

I feel that my phone is private and this is an invasion of my privacy. If I want anything I will do the calling. This should be unlawful. the FCC has standards on TV,CB's and amatuer radio with penalties why not with these people? leave the American citizen alone. If they want to do their thing they should use the postal service that way I can throw it in the fire and the goverment can earn a little through postage.